RE: Tort Claim # 3031011113
Your Client: Richard Eggleston

Dear Mr. Serrano:

The Department of Enterprise Services, Office of Risk Management, received your client's tort claim on December 16, 2022. We have reviewed the tort claim and have assigned investigation of the claim to the Torts Division of the Attorney General's Office. If you have any questions about the claim, please contact their office at:

Torts Division
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 40126
Olympia, WA 98504-0126
(360) 586-6300

Washington State maintains a public liability fund for payment of tort claims. Payment is made only after there has been a finding of tortious conduct. (Please see Chapter 4.92 RCW.) This acknowledgment does not constitute a review of the legal adequacy of the claim, nor should it be construed as a waiver of any deficiencies that may exist.

Sincerely,

M. Campbell

RE: Tort Claim # 3031011775
Your Client: Ryan Cole

Dear Mr. Serrano:

The Department of Enterprise Services, Office of Risk Management (ORM), received your client's tort claim against the Department of Health on February 15, 2023. We have reviewed the tort claim and have assigned the claim to the Torts Division of the Attorney General's Office (AGO).

The AGO represents the Department of Health and they will contact you directly if they need more information from you. Once a claim is transferred to the AGO, ORM cannot provide comments or status updates on your claim.

Washington State maintains a public liability fund for payment of tort claims. Payment is made only after there has been a finding of tortious conduct. (Please see Chapter 4.92 RCW.) This acknowledgment does not constitute a review of the legal adequacy of the claim, nor should it be construed as a waiver of any deficiencies that may exist.

Sincerely,

M. Campbell
